

The Open Source

Cantor Manual

This liturgy was created by Joan Sutherland, John Tarrant, and Rich Domingue for the Pacific Zen School, of which The Open Source is a part. It includes traditional Sanbo Kyodan chants and original work. All rights reserved.

This manual was originally designed for Awakened Life by Joan Sutherland & Piper Leigh. You're welcome to use and share it; please give proper credit. For more information, see joansutherlanddharmaworks.org.

CONTENTS

- The Four Vows
- Section One : The Sutra Service
- Section Two : Afternoon Readings
- Section Three : End of Day Ceremonies
 - End of Day Ceremony & Readings
 - Ceremony for Wartime
- Section Four : Meal Services
 - Serving Tea
 - Simple Meal Services
 - Formal Meal Services
 - Oryoki
- Section Five : Special Ceremonies
 - Taking Refuge in the Bodhisattva Way
 - Buddha's Birthday
 - Baby Welcoming Ceremony
 - Memorial Service
- Section Six : Close of Retreat Ceremony
- Section Seven : Notes on the Liturgy

KEY

○ = open note on bowl bell

● = closed note on bowl bell

◇ = open note on inkin

◆ = closed note on inkin

✕ = strike on mokugyo or drum

○³ = only on that repetition

= drop & then raise tone again on last syllable

PLEASE NOTE

The page numbering of the Cantor Manual isn't always the same as the page numbering in the Sutra Book. In this manual, the corresponding Sutra Book page number is noted at the top of the page if it's different from the Cantor Manual page number.

(Corresponds to page 1-11 of Sutra Book)

◆◆◆◆ The Four Boundless Vows ◆

(Sung—3 times)

I vow to wake the beings of the world ◆³

I vow to set endless heartache to rest

I vow to walk through every wisdom gate ◆³
◆³ ◆³

I vow to live the great Buddha way ◆^{1,2}

◆◆◆◆ The Four Bodhisattva Vows ◆

(Sung—3 times)

All beings one body, I vow to save them all

Blind passions spinning round and round, I vow to put them down

Knocking on countless Dharma doors, I vow to walk on through

The unsurpassed Buddha Way, I vow to live it every, every, every, everyday ◆

Cantor Manual

1 Intra Service

Cantor Manual

2 Afternoon
Readings

Cantor Manual

3 End of Day Ceremonies

Cantor Manual

‡ Meal Services

Cantor Manual

5 Special Ceremonies

Cantor Manual

6 Close of Retreat Ceremony

Cantor Manual

7 Notes on the Liturgy